

Come stay at The Retreat

Discover everything on offer at our Short Term Accommodation (STA) in Coffs Harbour

We have much to offer at The Retreat - Coffs Harbour!

The Retreat is a five-bedroom, purpose-built house that sits on half an acre of land, offering respite services to guests who want to take a break on the Mid North Coast.

A respite getaway at The Retreat is an opportunity for NDIS participants to socialise and meet new people, try new activities, and develop independence and living skills.

Guests to The Retreat can look forward to a fun and relaxing stay, designed to align with your vision.

Features at The Retreat:

- Trained staff are available onsite 24/7 to ensure a safe, fun and supported STA experience
- Large backyard with outdoor BBQ, outdoor eating area, enclosed trampoline, swing, play equipment and picnic area
- Two large common lounge rooms with a wall mounted TV, Netflix, PlayStation 4, Wii and other gaming devices
- 5 bedrooms, each with a TV that has Netflix, Stan and Disney channels. DVD players also available
- We get to know you and learn your interests before your stay so we can decorate your bedroom, helping you feel more at home
- A large activity room with a TV, DVD player, table tennis table, basketball game, art and crafts corner, and video games
- A quiet reading corner with a wide range of books to choose from
- Accessible equipment including high/low beds, a mobile hoist and shower commode chair
- Full kitchen facilities where you are welcome to help prepare meals or treats.
- An onsite 12 seater bus with wheelchair access for transport and offsite adventures
