Unique SIL/SDA opportunities in the Hunter

We're welcoming NDIS participants looking to live independently together.

Two SIL/SDA homes are becoming available in the Hunter, offering a group of connected NDIS participants the chance to transition to independent living and shape their own shared community.

What makes this opportunity unique

- Connection & Community: Create a home for participants who are already friends and peers, ready to live as a social group
- Fostering Independence: A supportive environment with expertly trained staff to encourage independent living and community connection
- Tailored to Need: SIL/SDA homes designed to the diverse range of disability needs, for comfortable and personalised living

We work closely with the support networks of each participant to ensure a smooth transition process into their new home - so they can create their ideal lifestyle.

Comprehensive Transition Support

- Onboarding assistance: a dedicated Occupancy Coordinator will ensure full support for participants, families and services during the transition process

AbilityOptions

- Personalised transition plans: We get to know each participant personally to provide tailored support to ensure smooth moves into a new shared home
- Ongoing care: Expertly trained teams available 24/7 to support during transition and beyond, encouraging independence and meaningful social and community engagement
