

Seven Hills Day Program

Build Skills, Make Friends, Have Fun!

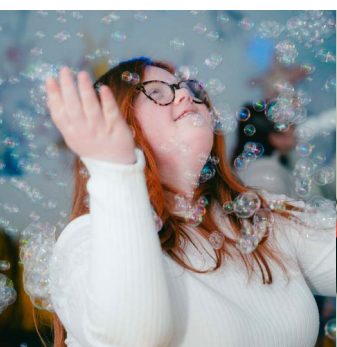

Inclusive and flexible in-centre and in community Day Programs for adults of all abilities, designed around your goals and interests.

At Seven Hills, everyone is welcome. We offer in-centre and in community activities for young adults, older individuals and participants with varied support needs.

We put choice and control first. Our participant-led activities are engaging, providing a balance between developing life skills and supporting participants' personal interests.

- Be supported by experienced staff trained in high-needs care and active supports
- Build independence through hands-on skill development Foster friendships in a welcoming social environment
- Engage with your community on regular social outings and trips
- Enjoy unique activities both in-centre and in the community
- Choose your path through programs that blend learning with fun
- Thrive in an accessible, modern and safe space
