

Discover supported independence at King Creek, Wauchope

Private self-contained living in a peaceful rural setting.

A unique vacancy is now available at our King Creek property, offering a fully self-contained unit adjoining a larger supported home. Set on 27 hectares of tranquil bushland, this semi-rural residence provides the perfect balance of independence, privacy and security, coupled with highly skilled behavioural support.

Surrounded by native wildlife, open space and the sounds of nature, this home offers a peaceful, low-stimulus environment for an NDIS participant who can live independently with access to specialist support.

With staff experienced in complex behaviour supports, de-escalation and incident reduction on hand 24/7, you can enjoy consistent support tailored to your needs.
